

00030

1966/04/12

~~REPRODUCED AT THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES~~
~~S-E-C-R-E-T~~

DD/I NOTICE
No. 50-100-52

DD/I N 50-100-52
12 April 1966

RESPONSIBILITIES OF COORDINATOR FOR ACADEMIC RELATIONS

1. The Coordinator for Academic Relations is charged primarily with carrying out the DDI's responsibility for exploiting the capabilities of the China Study Centers in the universities. In carrying out his duties, he is to bear in mind the overall needs of the Agency and the Intelligence Community for both numbers and types of China Specialists. These duties include:
 - a. Reviewing and assessing academic programs related to China in the United States and foreign countries.
 - b. Devising means to stimulate the expansion of China Study Programs in the universities, and to attract more people to China-related study.
 - c. Devising means of attracting China specialists to work in the Agency and in the Government.
2. He is also charged with developing and managing relations with academic consultants on China.
3. The Coordinator for Academic Relations will develop his programs and carry out his responsibilities in close and continuing consultation with the Chief, China Task Force. He will report to the DDI periodically on his program through the Chief, China Task Force.

R. J. Smith

R. J. SMITH
Deputy Director for Intelligence

~~S-E-C-R-E-T~~

GROUP I
Excluded from automatic downgrading and declassification

000015